CHAPTER 316

IOWA STATE COLLEGE OF AGRICULTURE AND MECHANIC ARTS

H. F. 270

AN ACT to make an emergency appropriation for the construction of an armory to take the place of the one destroyed by fire at the Iowa state college of agriculture and mechanic arts.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

- SECTION 1. Authority is hereby given to the state board of education to replace the armory at Iowa State College which was destroyed by fire in December, 1922. The new building to be built on the plans and specifications of the one destroyed may be used temporarily to accommodate any state activity connected with agriculture or agricultural interests, and is to be an exact duplicate thereof except that so far as practicable it shall be built of non-combustible material as to the offices and storage portions, and the roofs of these shall be fireproof, and extra fire walls and doors may be placed as required in the storage rooms. The roof of the main drill hall may be constructed of 10 non-combustible material in so far as this can be done at an added 11 cost of not to exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000.00), provided the 13 additional weight would not endanger the arches in case of a fire 14 within a store room.
- There is hereby appropriated out of any money in the state
- treasury not otherwise appropriated, to the Iowa State College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts, the sum of one hundred twenty-five
